Ms. PUNCHES stated the issue has been raised following the recent passage of SB143, which Gov. Steve Sisolak signed into law. Ms. PUNCHES further stated that the sheriff and Board of Commissioners swore to uphold both the US Constitution and the Nevada State Constitution. She said, should they disagree with the law they should work to change it, not circumvent it.

Widener said the study being used, as it regards to the proposed Holly Ranch development, is 3-4 years old. He also suggested speed bumps be installed.
